

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT AFFIDAVIT OF FINANCIAL SUPPORT ACADEMIC YEAR

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PARENT SPONSOR

Completion and submission of an Affidavit of Financial Support is a required part of the international student enrollment process into US colleges and universities. The amount of support shown must be equal to or greater than the annual cost of attendance minus any scholarship that has been offered to the student. The assumption by Hope College and the US Immigration Service is that this support will continue for the duration of your study at Hope College.

The student name and e-mail should match the name, and e-mail address, used on the submitted application for admission. In the "Relationship to Student" section please indicate, Parent, Family Member, or Sponsor.

ESTIMATED	COST OF ATTENDANCE*
Tuition and Fees	$41,970
Room and Board	$12,950
Health Insurance, Books and Supplies	$3,500
Total	$58,420

SCHOLARSHIPS

All admitted international students are considered for an academic scholarship, valued from $25,000 - $30,000. These are renewable for a total of four years, as long as the student remains in good academic standing. If awarded, scholarship
